

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

VOL. 3—NO. 250.

GEO. S. ROSSER. M. J. McCARTHY.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1884.

PRICE ONE CENT.

THE AFFAIRS OF EUROPE.

Rumors that France is Seeking the Assistance of Japan.

Preparations for the Opening of the Alberg Tunnel—Stanley's Future—Cannibalism—A Coming Lecture—Social News Notes.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—The rumors that France has offered the island of Corse to Japan, as a compensation for her assistance should war be openly declared, are assuming such shape that many of the French journals assert that the offer is to be made in two days. But this event is extremely improbable, as it is known that Russia has already notified the French Government that she objects to any intervention by France in the East. But the French are not so easily satisfied as to give up their right to armed assistance without a reward.

The furious newspaper discussion on cannibalism, inaugurated when the news of the massacre of the Maoris reached London, still continues. The Telegraph publishes daily some new phase of the harrowing details of the wreck, and every way emphasizes the acts of the savagery. The Earl of Mayo, the Foreign Minister, has issued a circular to all British Consuls to the effect that the Telegraph "has lived for a week upon the horrors of that dreadful scene, fatiguing the soul of the foul fiend, and gloating with abysmal joy over the revolting details." The Queen has issued a circular to all British Consuls to kill and eat their comrades should be exposed in a court of justice. It denounces in the strongest terms the hideous nature of cannibalism, which is so graphically shown in the discussions which have followed the revelations concerning those saved in the Greely expedition, and concludes that insanity can be the only excuse for acts of barbarism so brutal and justly abhorrent to the civilized world.

The rigors of military conscription in Germany are illustrated by a recent incident at Greiz. Two soldiers of that city, being soldiers in the garrison, were sent to Berlin to report for duty as for the annual maneuvers of the German army. The only means of transportation offered them was to go in a cattle train with a lot of peasants, who were also laborers. The garrison authorities compelled them to take their places in the cattle car, and telegraphed a remonstrance to the Emperor William at Berlin. A reply came back through military official channels to the effect that the officers were to be tried in the usual way for desertion and treason. The two men have accordingly been duly tried by court martial, and the sentence of the court has been passed, for each of them, eight years of imprisonment at hard labor in the common prison at Greiz.

Prince Henry, of Reuss-Greiz, had a perilous adventure a few days ago while driving his carriage through a narrow defile in a rugged mountain pass. While going along he suddenly seized a dashing ruffian while another man, also disguised and heavily armed, came to his carriage door and threatened to murder him. The Prince stopped, called out on an unarmed revolver, which he had got out of his pocket, made a motion as if to shoot his assailant. At this both the miscreants fled. The Prince was left to drive home alone, and was severely jarred in the narrow and dangerous defile. An investigation of the outrage seems to fasten the guilt upon two servants who were recently discharged from the service of the Prince.

The people of Central Austria are anxious about the approaching opening of the Alberg Tunnel under the Rhaetian Alps, which is to connect Austria with Switzerland and readily facilitate railway communication between the two countries. The terrible negotiations have been made for the ceremonies of the opening day, which is fixed for the 20th instant. Emperor Francis Joseph is to be a passenger on the first train that passes through the Alpine Tunnel, and the royal御者es of Vienna are preparing to give him a rousing welcome.

Mr. Edward Hine, the apostle of Anglo-Saxon, is to start for the United States on the 1st of October. He proposes to lecture on the principles of Socialism, continuing in New York October 18, and then go to Australia. Mr. Hine has secured proofs which seem to him irrefutable of the identity of the English people with the lost tribe of Israel, and the most improved machinery of all kinds, which enables us to do PRINTING promptly and in style not excelled by any office in the West.

The BULLETIN

is a home journal for all, and with a large and firmly established circulation, it offers unsurpassed facilities to advertisers who desire to reach the homes of our readers. We are now gathered together in their leisure, and at a time when they are at ease and most likely to read advertisements.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
DAILY, per year..... $5.00
WEEKLY, per year..... 2.00

—THE—

JOB PRINTING

DEPARTMENT

is supplied with the most popular styles of type, cuts, borders, rules etc., and the most improved machinery of all kinds, which enables us to do PRINTING promptly and in style not excelled by any office in the West.

BILL HEADS, NOTE HEADS, STATEMENTS, LETTER HEADS,

ENVELOPES, PROGRAMMES,
VISITING CARDS,
BUSINESS CARDS,

SALE BILLS,
PRICE LIST,
DODGERS,
TAGS, LABELS.

The very best quality of stock at the lowest possible margin.

Wedding Stationery!

of the latest style and in great variety. All orders by mail promptly attended to. Estimates furnished, and any desired information given. Address

ROSSER & McCARTHY,

Second Street, Mayville, Ky.

An important conference of steel-rail manufacturers of England, Germany, and Belgium has been held at Berlin. It was intended to form an international coalition of all the leading manufacturers for the purpose of maintaining prices and preventing overproduction.

Sir George Northcote, the Tory leader of the House of Commons, is to speed this making political speeches in Scotland, as an intitute to Mr. Gladstone's Midlothian campaign. The Premier meantime is maintaining his Scotch Highways, which looks as fresh and vigorous as ever.

A further order for 300,000 pounds of compressed beef has been given to a Chicago firm, marking a total of 740,000 pounds of beef ordered for the Nile relief expedition.

It is now settled that Mrs. Langtry's winter season in London is to be at the Princess' Theater, and Mr. Abbey is very confident of the success of this venture. He has put a fine actress in the part, which he believes will admirably suit Mrs. Langtry.

Miss Ellen Terry's sojourn in the country has certainly had the effect of wiping out all traces of her recent illness. She is in London in perfect health. While in D. L., where she and Mr. Irving spent their vacation, although occupying separate lodgings, they were constantly seen together. They had a gay time, took a drive, and publicly enjoyed themselves. The actors' friction existed which might lead to a rupture of their theatrical interests.

Mr. Henry Irving will give his farewell performance on Monday night at the Covent Garden, and will be succeeded by Mr. W. G. Steamer, Con. Comer, E. A. Morrissey, E. Mayer, A. Oakley Hall, Mr. Frank Hill, editor of the Standard; Mr. Pollock, of the Saturday Review; Mr. Wilson, Mrs. Henry Abbott, Mr. Stephen Yates, Mr. George Augustus Holt, Mr. Edmund Yates, Mr. John Hollingshead, and Mr. Lawrence Tulane, Mr. John Hollingshead, and Mr. Lawrence Tulane.

A FATAL SPREE.

Brother Smothers Brother to Death in a Drunken Sleep.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Policeman Shinn, of the Charles street squad, found a man senseless in a doorway on Second street, and a bundle of rags. He was taken to the hospital, and died this morning, between West and Washington streets, at 4 o'clock yesterday morning. Investigation showed the sleeper to be a man whose coat and waistcoat were pulled off his back. The under man was a negro. Shinn said he was a patient from St. Vincent's Hospital and the surgeon who came with him said the man had died of suffocation.

The other man, when he had sufficiently recovered from his drunkenness, said that his name was John Baptist Kuhler, a waiter at 6 Stone street. He himself was Joseph Kuhler, a waiter at 360 Canal street. They had come from Germany two months ago.

The dead man was a twenty-five years old, white, and was a druggist in Fifty-ninth street. The brothers went to see her on Saturday night, and while paying the visit Brien cast a pair of bees. They then took a boat and a cab to the Bowery, and got into a saloon at 17 Christopher street. They got out of the Morris street, and drank two glasses of brandy at the first saloon when they came to John became unable to walk soon after leaving the saloon, and Joseph tried to carry him. After dragging him some distance, Joseph fell down with his burden, and he remembers nothing more.

FRISBEE'S SECOND FAILURE.

Very Cool, Notwithstanding the Charge is Grand Larceny.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—William Frisbee, the alleged defaulting exchange dealer of the First National Bank of Portland, who was captured a few days ago in New York, has arrived. Since his arrival Frisbee has arranged on a large scale to pay his debts, and entered a plea of not guilty. He waived examination and was held to wait the action of the Grand Jury. The total amount of his illegal defalcation will reach nearly $80,000, and he is to be tried on the 20th instant. He is to be a passenger on the first train that passes through the Alpine Tunnel, and the royal御者es of Vienna are preparing to give him a rousing welcome.

Mr. Edward Hine, the apostle of Anglo-Saxon, is to start for the United States on the 1st of October. He proposes to lecture on the principles of Socialism, continuing in New York October 18, and then go to Australia. Mr. Hine has secured proofs which seem to him irrefutable of the identity of the English people with the lost tribe of Israel, and the most improved machinery of all kinds, which enables us to do PRINTING promptly and in style not excelled by any office in the West.

RESULTS OF TWO DRUNKEN MEN TRYING WITH A STREET CAR CONDUCTOR.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—A police officer, and companion, maimed William Castle, a conductor on an open car on the Blue Island Avenue line. They were somewhat intoxicated, and conductor Castle claimed they had been drinking beer, and entered a ple of not guilty. He waived examination and was held to wait the action of the Grand Jury. The total amount of his illegal defalcation will reach nearly $80,000, and he is to be tried on the 20th instant. He is to be a passenger on the first train that passes through the Alpine Tunnel, and the royal御者es of Vienna are preparing to give him a rousing welcome.

Mr. Edward Hine, the apostle of Anglo-Saxon, is to start for the United States on the 1st of October. He proposes to lecture on the principles of Socialism, continuing in New York October 18, and then go to Australia. Mr. Hine has secured proofs which seem to him irrefutable of the identity of the English people with the lost tribe of Israel, and the most improved machinery of all kinds, which enables us to do PRINTING promptly and in style not excelled by any office in the West.

AN OLD MAN AND CHILD Cremated.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 16.—The cremation of a venerable old colored man, named Simon Harrison, is reported. They came from Monroe, Georgia, Louisiana, at the home of the old man's son, William. During the son's absence the house took fire. The old man hurriedly removed the two children from the burning building, and when he returned them to a shelter distance from the house, the younger one ran back into the building. The old man followed and attempted to rescue it, but the flames had cut off his retreat, and both perished.

QUESTY Lynched.

WELLINGTON, Kas., Sept. 16.—Frank Jones, the negro who did the shooting in this place Friday night, was quietly buried, causing a panic among the bathers, many of whom have already left for the season.

Lawyer Lowell is ratiocinating for a few weeks as the guest of the Right Hon. George John Shaw Leevre, at Mapperley Hall, Nottingham.

He is supplied with the most popular styles of type, cuts, borders, rules etc., and the most improved machinery of all kinds, which enables us to do PRINTING promptly and in style not excelled by any office in the West.

ALBERT LUX, of Chicago, aged eighteen, struck on the head with a club by Policeman Kearney, has become violently insane.

GEO. H. MILLIS, wife murderer, was sentenced to life imprisonment, New York, to be hanged on the 7th of November.

SIX HUNDRED AND FORTY-ONE new cases of cholera and 267 deaths are reported from Naples during the twenty-four hours ending at noon Monday. This is a decrease of one case and 100 deaths daily compared with the previous twenty-four hours.

The Canadian Pacific Railroad has discharged 300 mechanics from the car and locomotive shops at Montreal, have more rolling stock than they can use. As the iron founders there have more business now than for several months past skilled labor can easily find employment.

BRUTALITY TO CONVICTS.

Evidence that Two Were Murdered at Lexington, Kentucky.

Beaten Because They Were 100 Sick to Work, They Die in an Hour from the Effects—One of the Brutal Guards Under Arrest.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 16.—The Coroner's jury has finished its inquest into the death of John O'Brien and James Smith, the two convicts alleged to have been killed at the convict camp at the Waterworks reservoir. The testimony revealed a terrible state of affairs in the appearance of the convicts and upon the bodies of the deceased.

It was now settled that Mrs. Langtry's winter season in London is to be at the Princess' Theater, and Mr. Abbey is very confident of the success of this venture. He has put a fine actress in the part, which he believes will admirably suit Mrs. Langtry.

Miss Ellen Terry's sojourn in the country has certainly had the effect of wiping out all traces of her recent illness. She is in London in perfect health. While in D. L., where she and Mr. Irving spent their vacation, although occupying separate lodgings, they were constantly seen together. They had a gay time, took a drive, and publicly enjoyed themselves. The actors' friction existed which might lead to a rupture of their theatrical interests.

Mr. Henry Irving will give his farewell performance on Monday night at the Covent Garden, and will be succeeded by Mr. W. G. Steamer, Con. Comer, E. A. Morrissey, E. Mayer, A. Oakley Hall, Mr. Frank Hill, editor of the Standard; Mr. Pollock, of the Saturday Review; Mr. Wilson, Mrs. Henry Abbott, Mr. Stephen Yates, Mr. George Augustus Holt, Mr. Edmund Yates, Mr. John Hollingshead, and Mr. Lawrence Tulane, Mr. John Hollingshead, and Mr. Lawrence Tulane.

A FATAL SPREE.

Brother Smothers Brother to Death in a Drunken Sleep.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Policeman Shinn, of the Charles street squad, found a man senseless in a doorway on Second street, and a bundle of rags. He was taken to the hospital, and died this morning, between West and Washington streets, at 4 o'clock yesterday morning. Investigation showed the sleeper to be a man whose coat and waistcoat were pulled off his back. The under man was a negro. Shinn said he was a patient from St. Vincent's Hospital and the surgeon who came with him said the man had died of suffocation.

The other man, when he had sufficiently recovered from his drunkenness, said that his name was John Baptist Kuhler, a waiter at 6 Stone street. He himself was Joseph Kuhler, a waiter at 360 Canal street. They had come from Germany two months ago.

The dead man was a twenty-five years old, white, and was a druggist in Fifty-ninth street. The brothers went to see her on Saturday night, and while paying the visit Brien cast a pair of bees. They then took a boat and a cab to the Bowery, and got into a saloon at 17 Christopher street. They got out of the Morris street, and drank two glasses of brandy at the first saloon when they came to John became unable to walk soon after leaving the saloon, and Joseph tried to carry him. After dragging him some distance, Joseph fell down with his burden, and he remembers nothing more.

FRISBEE'S SECOND FAILURE.

Very Cool, Notwithstanding the Charge is Grand Larceny.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—William Frisbee, the alleged defaulting exchange dealer of the First National Bank of Portland, who was captured a few days ago in New York, has arrived. Since his arrival Frisbee has arranged on a large scale to pay his debts, and entered a plea of not guilty. He waived examination and was held to wait the action of the Grand Jury. The total amount of his illegal defalcation will reach nearly $80,000, and he is to be tried on the 20th instant. He is to be a passenger on the first train that passes through the Alpine Tunnel, and the royal御者es of Vienna are preparing to give him a rousing welcome.

Mr. Edward Hine, the apostle of Anglo-Saxon, is to start for the United States on the 1st of October. He proposes to lecture on the principles of Socialism, continuing in New York October 18, and then go to Australia. Mr. Hine has secured proofs which seem to him irrefutable of the identity of the English people with the lost tribe of Israel, and the most improved machinery of all kinds, which enables us to do PRINTING promptly and in style not excelled by any office in the West.

RESULTS OF TWO DRUNKEN MEN TRYING WITH A STREET CAR CONDUCTOR.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—A police officer, and companion, maimed William Castle, a conductor on an open car on the Blue Island Avenue line. They were somewhat intoxicated, and conductor Castle claimed they had been drinking beer, and entered a ple of not guilty. He waived examination and was held to wait the action of the Grand Jury. The total amount of his illegal defalcation will reach nearly $80,000, and he is to be tried on the 20th instant. He is to be a passenger on the first train that passes through the Alpine Tunnel, and the royal御者es of Vienna are preparing to give him a rousing welcome.

Mr. Edward Hine, the apostle of Anglo-Saxon, is to start for the United States on the 1st of October. He proposes to lecture on the principles of Socialism, continuing in New York October 18, and then go to Australia. Mr. Hine has secured proofs which seem to him irrefutable of the identity of the English people with the lost tribe of Israel, and the most improved machinery of all kinds, which enables us to do PRINTING promptly and in style not excelled by any office in the West.

AN OLD MAN AND CHILD Cremated.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 16.—The cremation of a venerable old colored man, named Simon Harrison, is reported. They came from Monroe, Georgia, Louisiana, at the home of the old man's son, William. During the son's absence the house took fire. The old man hurriedly removed the two children from the burning building, and when he returned them to a shelter distance from the house, the younger one ran back into the building. The old man followed and attempted to rescue it, but the flames had cut off his retreat, and both perished.

QUESTY Lynched.

WELLINGTON, Kas., Sept. 16.—Frank Jones, the negro who did the shooting in this place Friday night, was quietly buried, causing a panic among the bathers, many of whom have already left for the season.

Lawyer Lowell is ratiocinating for a few weeks as the guest of the Right Hon. George John Shaw Leevre, at Mapperley Hall, Nottingham.

He is supplied with the most popular styles of type, cuts, borders, rules etc., and the most improved machinery of all kinds, which enables us to do PRINTING promptly and in style not excelled by any office in the West.

ALBERT LUX, of Chicago, aged eighteen, struck on the head with a club by Policeman Kearney, has become violently insane.

GEO. H. MILLIS, wife murderer, was sentenced to life imprisonment, New York, to be hanged on the 7th of November.

SIX HUNDRED AND FORTY-ONE new cases of cholera and 267 deaths are reported from Naples during the twenty-four hours ending at noon Monday. This is a decrease of one case and 100 deaths daily compared with the previous twenty-four hours.

The Canadian Pacific Railroad has discharged 300 mechanics from the car and locomotive shops at Montreal, have more rolling stock than they can use. As the iron founders there have more business now than for several months past skilled labor can easily find employment.

ing the country over, and considering the number of would-be editors who will fall into the snare, the fraud is colossal in its proportions.

A Press reporter is informed that the post office authorities are investigating the matter, and that the parties interested have been busily standing in the community.

SOME ANCIENT PATENTS.

A Wood Saver's Royalty—Perpetual Motion Cranks.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—The preparation by the Patent Office to make a display at Cinematograph, Science and Art, New York, showing the history of inventions from the beginning down to the present time, brings to the surface some interesting facts about the history of the Patent Office and its earliest workings. The first patent ever issued by the Patent Office was granted to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for a method of manufacturing salt. This patent provided that "none are to make this article except in a different manner from the present practice of the salt works." This is the earliest record of a patent ever issued.

This patent was afterward renewed by Clark, who, it is said, continued to live until 1860, when he died, and his widow sold the rights to the Connecticut Patent Office. The Connecticut Patent Office is the oldest in the country, having been established in 1790. The first patent issued by the Connecticut Patent Office was granted to a Mr. John Clark, of New Haven, Conn., for a method of manufacturing salt. This patent provided that "none are to make this article except in a different manner from the present practice of the salt works." This is the earliest record of a patent ever issued.

This patent was afterward renewed by Clark, who, it is said, continued to live until 1860, when he died, and his widow sold the rights to the Connecticut Patent Office. The Connecticut Patent Office is the oldest in the country, having been established in 1790. The first patent issued by the Connecticut Patent Office was granted to a Mr. John Clark, of New Haven, Conn., for a method of manufacturing salt. This patent provided that "none are to make this article except in a different manner from the present practice of the salt works." This is the earliest record of a patent ever issued.

This patent was afterward renewed by Clark, who, it is said, continued to live until 1860, when he died, and his widow sold the rights to the Connecticut Patent Office. The Connecticut Patent Office is the oldest in the country, having been established in 1790. The first patent issued by the Connecticut Patent Office was granted to a Mr. John Clark, of New Haven, Conn., for a method of manufacturing salt. This patent provided that "none are to make this article except in a different manner from the present practice of the salt works." This is the earliest record of a patent ever issued.

This patent was afterward renewed by Clark, who, it is said, continued to live until 1860, when he died, and his widow sold the rights to the Connecticut Patent Office. The Connecticut Patent Office is the oldest in the country, having been established in 1790. The first patent issued by the Connecticut Patent Office was granted to a Mr. John Clark, of New Haven, Conn., for a method of manufacturing salt. This patent provided that "none are to make this article except in a different manner from the present practice of the salt works." This is the earliest record of a patent ever issued.

This patent was afterward renewed by Clark, who, it is said, continued to live until 1860, when he died, and his widow sold the rights to the Connecticut Patent Office. The Connecticut Patent Office is the oldest in the country, having been established in 1790. The first patent issued by the Connecticut Patent Office was granted to a Mr. John Clark, of New Haven, Conn., for a method of manufacturing salt. This patent provided that "none are to make this article except in a different manner from the present practice of the salt works." This is the earliest record of a patent ever issued.

This patent was afterward renewed by Clark, who, it is said, continued to live until 1860, when he died, and his widow sold the rights to the Connecticut Patent Office. The Connecticut Patent Office is the oldest in the country, having been established in 1790. The first patent issued by the Connecticut Patent Office was granted to a Mr. John Clark, of New Haven, Conn., for a method of manufacturing salt. This patent provided that "none are to make this article except in a different manner from the present practice of the salt works." This is the earliest record of a patent ever issued.

This patent was afterward renewed by Clark, who, it is said, continued to live until 1860, when he died, and his widow sold the rights to the Connecticut Patent Office. The Connecticut Patent Office is the oldest in the country, having been established in 1790. The first patent issued by the Connecticut Patent Office was granted to a Mr. John Clark, of New Haven, Conn., for a method of manufacturing salt. This patent provided that "none are to make this article except in a different manner from the present practice of the salt works." This is the earliest record of a patent ever issued.

This patent was afterward renewed by Clark, who, it is said, continued to live until 1860, when he died, and his widow sold the rights to the Connecticut Patent Office. The Connecticut Patent Office is the oldest in the country, having been established in 1790. The first patent issued by the Connecticut Patent Office was granted to a Mr. John Clark, of New Haven, Conn., for a method of manufacturing salt. This patent provided that "none are to make this article except in a different manner from the present practice of the salt works." This is the earliest record of a patent ever issued.

This patent was afterward renewed by Clark, who, it is said, continued to live until 1860, when he died, and his widow sold the rights to the Connecticut Patent Office. The Connecticut Patent Office is the oldest in the country, having been established in 1790. The first patent issued by the Connecticut Patent Office was granted to a Mr. John Clark, of New Haven, Conn., for a method of manufacturing salt. This patent provided that "none are to make this article except in a different manner from the present practice of the salt works." This is the earliest record of a patent ever issued.

This patent was afterward renewed by Clark, who, it is said, continued to live until 1860, when he died, and his widow sold the rights to the Connecticut Patent Office. The Connecticut Patent Office is the oldest in the country, having been established in 1790. The first patent issued by the Connecticut Patent Office was granted to a Mr. John Clark, of New Haven, Conn., for a method of manufacturing salt. This patent provided that "none are to make this article except in a different manner from the present practice of the salt works." This is the earliest record of a patent ever issued.

This patent was afterward renewed by Clark, who, it is said, continued to live until 1860, when he died, and his widow sold the rights to the Connecticut Patent Office. The Connecticut Patent Office is the oldest in the country, having been established in 1790. The first patent issued by the Connecticut Patent Office was granted to a Mr. John Clark, of New Haven, Conn., for a method of manufacturing salt. This patent provided that "none are to make this article except in a different manner from the present practice of the salt works." This is the earliest record of a patent ever issued.

This patent was afterward renewed by Clark, who, it is said, continued to live until 1860, when he died, and his widow sold the rights to the Connecticut Patent Office. The Connecticut Patent Office is the oldest in the country, having been established in 1790. The first patent issued by the Connecticut Patent Office was granted to a Mr. John Clark, of New Haven, Conn., for a method of manufacturing salt. This patent provided that "none are to make this article except in a different manner from the present practice of the salt works." This is the earliest record of a patent ever issued.

This patent was afterward renewed by Clark, who, it is said, continued to live until 1860, when he died, and his widow sold the rights to the Connecticut Patent Office. The Connecticut Patent Office is the oldest in the country, having been established in 1790. The first patent issued by the Connecticut Patent Office was granted to a Mr. John Clark, of New Haven, Conn., for a method of manufacturing salt. This patent provided that "none are to make this article except in a different manner from the present practice of the salt works." This is the earliest record of a patent ever issued.

This patent was afterward renewed by Clark, who, it is said, continued to live until 1860, when he died, and his widow sold the rights to the Connecticut Patent Office. The Connecticut Patent Office is the oldest in the country, having been established in 1790. The first patent issued by the Connecticut Patent Office was granted to a Mr. John Clark, of New Haven, Conn., for a method of manufacturing salt. This patent provided that "none are to make this article except in a different manner from the present practice of the salt works." This is the earliest record of a patent ever issued.

This patent was afterward renewed by Clark, who, it is said, continued to live until 1860, when he died, and his widow sold the rights to the Connecticut Patent Office. The Connecticut Patent Office is the oldest in the country, having been established in 1790. The first patent issued by the Connecticut Patent Office was granted to a Mr. John Clark, of New Haven, Conn., for a method of manufacturing salt. This patent provided that "none are to make this article except in a different manner from the present practice of the salt works." This is the earliest record of a patent ever issued.

This patent was afterward renewed by Clark, who, it is said, continued to live until 1860, when he died, and his widow sold the rights to the Connecticut Patent Office. The Connecticut Patent Office is the oldest in the country, having been established in 1790. The first patent issued by the Connecticut Patent Office was granted to a Mr. John Clark, of New Haven, Conn., for a method of manufacturing salt. This patent provided that "none are to make this article except in a different manner from the present practice of the salt works." This is the earliest record of a patent ever issued.

This patent was afterward renewed by Clark, who, it is said, continued to live until 1860, when he died, and his widow sold the rights to the Connecticut Patent Office. The Connecticut Patent Office is the oldest in the country, having been established in 1790. The first patent issued by the Connecticut Patent Office was granted to a Mr. John Clark, of New Haven, Conn., for a method of manufacturing salt. This patent provided that "none are to make this article except in a different manner from the present practice of the salt works." This is the earliest record of a patent ever issued.

This patent was afterward renewed by Clark, who, it is said, continued to live until 1860, when he died, and his widow sold the rights to the Connecticut Patent Office. The Connecticut Patent Office is the oldest in the country, having been established in 1790. The first patent issued by the Connecticut Patent Office was granted to a Mr. John Clark, of New Haven, Conn., for a method of manufacturing salt. This patent provided that "none are to make this article except in a different manner from the present practice of the salt works." This is the earliest record of a patent ever issued.

This patent was afterward renewed by Clark, who, it is said, continued to live until 1860, when he died, and his widow sold the rights to the Connecticut Patent Office. The Connecticut Patent Office is the oldest in the country, having been established in 1790. The first patent issued by the Connecticut Patent Office was granted to a Mr. John Clark, of New Haven, Conn., for a method of manufacturing salt. This patent provided that "none are to make this article except in a different manner from the present practice of the salt works." This is the earliest record of a patent ever issued.

This patent was afterward renewed by Clark, who, it is said, continued to live until 1860, when he died, and his widow sold the rights to the Connecticut Patent Office. The Connecticut Patent Office is the oldest in the country, having been established in 1790. The first patent issued by the Connecticut Patent Office was granted to a Mr. John Clark, of New Haven, Conn., for a method of manufacturing salt. This patent provided that "none are to make this article except in a different manner from the present practice of the salt works." This is the earliest record of a patent ever issued.

This patent was afterward renewed by Clark, who, it is said, continued to live until 1860, when he died, and his widow sold the rights to the Connecticut Patent Office. The Connecticut Patent Office is the oldest in the country, having been established in 1790. The first patent issued by the Connecticut Patent Office was granted to a Mr. John Clark, of New Haven, Conn., for a method of manufacturing salt. This patent provided that "none are to make this article except in a different manner from the present practice of the salt works." This is the earliest record of a patent ever issued.

This patent was afterward renewed by Clark, who, it is said, continued to live until 1860, when he died, and his widow sold the rights to the Connecticut Patent Office. The Connecticut Patent Office is the oldest in the country, having been established in 1790. The first patent issued by the Connecticut Patent Office was granted to a Mr. John Clark, of New Haven, Conn., for a method of manufacturing salt. This patent provided that "none are to make this article except in a different manner from the present practice of the salt works." This is the earliest record of a patent ever issued.

This patent was afterward renewed by Clark, who, it is said, continued to live until 1860, when he died, and his widow sold the rights to the Connecticut Patent Office. The Connecticut Patent Office is the oldest in the country, having been established in 1790. The first patent issued by the Connecticut Patent Office was granted to a Mr. John Clark, of New Haven, Conn., for a method of manufacturing salt. This patent provided that "none are to make this article except in a different manner from the present practice of the salt works." This is the earliest record of a patent ever issued.

This patent was afterward renewed by Clark, who, it is said, continued to live until 1860, when he died, and his widow sold the rights to the Connecticut Patent Office

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

TUESDAY EVE., SEPT. 16, 1884.

Hutchins' Drivel.

The first gun of the campaign was fired last night. Capt. M. C. Hutchins, being duly loaded, shot himself off, before the Blaine and Logan club, at Amazon Hall in East Mayfield. He was in fairly good trim and misrepresented Democratic principles, measures and men in his usual audacious style. He began by stating that Grover Cleveland was a nonentity that while sheriff he had hanged an Irishman; that as Governor of New York he had vetoed every bill presented to him in the interest of workingmen for the benefit of the monopolists of New York, and concluded his remarks about the Democratic candidate for President by denouncing him as a libertine.

Mr. Hendricks was referred to as a copperhead and the organizer of the Ku Klux Klan in the North—too cowardly to go into the war he had remained at home to stab in the back the men who went to the front to fight in the cause of the purest methods.

Blaine was lauded as a statesman whose fame extended all over the world—the foremost man of his time and a patriot of the purest methods.

The plating was applied especially thick to Black Jack Logan, as the speaker familiarly called him. He knew him personally, having made his acquaintance on the battle-field when Logan was serving under the body of General McPherson, who had been slain in action. The speaker endeavored to make the scene very pathetic and touching and was so fulsome in his praise of the black man of Illinois, as to suggest the idea that he preferred Logan for President over Blaine.

In referring to the Congressional race he spoke about the only truthful utterance he had made during the evening. He said Mr. Wadsworth was a gentleman, he was a kind-hearted man, he had been known in his time to help with money men and women who were in want and distress, but while a member of Congress he had flickered on slavery. "I myself," said the speaker, "was right on the subject all the time; I was for abolition from the beginning, but Mr. Wadsworth was not." An excuse for this recency to the interests of the colored race was offered in the statement that the times were appealing and the general impression prevailed around here that the Government was biting off a bigger chew than the Union Democracy thought it ought to take. The defense of the Cicero of Sugar Loaf Hill was lame and insincere.

Mr. Powers, the Democratic candidate for Congress, like Cleveland, the speaker said, was a nonentity. He had never been in the Legislature nor a member of any public body, where he had shown his fitness to be elected to Congress. He was a native of Ohio and a carpet-bagger, which led the valiant Captain to remark, "The meanest Democrat I know are over in Brown County, Ohio. The Democrats of Mason County are gentlemen beside them. In shaking hands with one of these Brown County Democrats I feel like I am handling a snake." "Mr. Powers," said he, "so far as I know, is a gentleman and an upright, honest man, but he is certain to be defeated."

In conclusion the speaker stated that Mr. Wadsworth will carry his district by 1,500 majority. "We will get," he said, "sixty-six per cent. of the Irish vote of Mason County and nearly all the Irish vote of Bracken County." This and a great deal more the enthusiastic orator said in ushering down of the truth, in support of waging fortunes of his party. The speech altogether was such as Hinsdale was expected to make and of the kind his Democratic competitors desire him to make. In truth he is a good campaign document for the Democracy.

This Courier Journal says: The election news sent out from Maine is badly doctored. The telegram published elsewhere asserts that Robie's (Republ.) majority over Redman (Democrat) is 19,707, against a Democratic majority in 1880 of 10,000 for Plaisted over Davis. This claim is all false. The Democrats had no candidate for Governor in 1880; they supported Plaisted, who represented all the elements opposed to the Republicans. Four years ago Blaine's party cast 73,507 votes for Davis, this year the same organization gives Robie 77,779, a difference of 4,182 in Robie's favor. In 1880 the fusion vote was 73,787. This year the opposition vote, including that of Redman, is 62,657. The total vote this year is 140,430, against 147,845 in 1880. Even the pine trees refuse, apparently, to be magnetized by the magnetic statement, whose gushing son seems to be well up in "tributary."

The Cincinnati Times-Star remarks: "The worst men connected with the corrupt system in Kentucky are not the convicts." Some of the keepers are braves for whom hanging would be too good, but the Legislature is to blame for making such things possible as lately occurred at Lexington.

Powers in Bobertson.

MAYFIELD, Ky., Sept. 16, 1884.—
Ed. Bulletin—had the pleasure of visiting Mayfield over yesterday afternoon. It was Court-day, the little capital of Robertson was crowded with the best of her citizens. Captain Frank Powers the next Congressman, was there and created quite a sensation. His dress appears to be generally adopted, and upon the six or seven hundred people present there was not more than a dozen who did not receive an introduction and none who did not go away with a conviction that Captain Powers was a most remarkable man, and that he would be able to fairly and fitly represent the true interest of the masses, and ever be found battling for the welfare of the Democracy.

There is no manumit sentiment or desire to abandon party and principle, and follow after a Republican leader, simply because of personal friendship. The people there seem to have a higher conception of their political rights, and they are leaders, men as morally and as legally, yet, they will not sacrifice their political principles, nor support a man for such reasons, especially in a crisis like the present, when we are attempting to secure the nomination of a man we may need the vote of the Ninth District, the next Congress. What good will a Democratic President accomplish if Congress becomes Republican. The reports from Bracken are very encouraging. That country has been thoroughly roused and the Democrats are out and about to the importance of the contest. Robertson promises 400 majority for Powers, Bracken will give 800. Cannot we of Mason give 600?"

WHEN Blaine was Secretary of State, he gave orders that Calhoun should be recognized as President of Penn, but insisted that he should use his office to confirm the Laundre guano concession, worth $20,000, to Shipherd, who was a secret partner of Blaine. Blaine was the first diplomat among guano jobbers, and the first guano jobbers among diplomats.

BLAINE stands convicted of having been a Know-Nothing, a substitute broker, speculator in army contracts, prostituting a public office to his unlawful personal gain, and of being the employer of cheap contract labor imported for the purpose of Enraged.

The New York Tribune, which now supports Blaine, said of him in 1872: "He is a coward by instinct and a bully by calculation."

"BLAINE'S Twenty Years in Congress" should be entitled "Blaine's Twenty Years of the Make."

GUEN B. RAY wants to be Logan's successor to the United States Senate.

The printing for the twenty-seven-year Congress cost $500,000. The total disbursements of the Government printing office now amount to over $2,500,000 per year.

The taxable property in the United States is now worth $17,000,000,000, not including the property free from tax owned by this Government and many of the States.

In 1830 there were only 161 Ministers, Consuls, Agents, &c., in the Diplomatic service of the United States; now there are over nine hundred persons employed in said service.

Besides the millions of acres belonging to railroad and other corporations, the amount of land that is being acquired by foreign capitalists and landlords is fairly amazing.

There is now due the Government at the rate of $100,000 a month a gallon of whisky, which, at ninety cents a gallon, as provided by law, amounts to the aggregate sum of $263,000,000.

The Commissioner of Pensions when giving the names of pensioners of the survivors of the Mexican war, estimated thirty-six thousand soldiers and thirty-two thousand widows.

From August, 1882, to November, 1883, only 2,600 cases had been sent to San Francisco, 1,000 less than before. Of the latter, 12,181 had returned certificates. The loss by departure was but 1,303.

A man of the People, Flemington Democrat,

Hon. Frank Powers has made a good impression among our people this week, in a man of pure character, conscientious and upright. A number of the people here are identified with the interests, and fully in accord with the Democratic doctrine. He will be of great service to the district as extensively as possible to judge of his deserts. We feel that the better he becomes known in the district the larger his majority will be.

Must Be Woke Awake.

The Democrats of the Ninth district must be wide awake and lie dead earnest if they expect to redeem it from the Republicans at the next election. They have a brilliant and inspiring leader in Frank Powers and they must sustain him heartily at every point. Mr. Wadsworth the Republican candidate, is an old politician, a good stump speaker, and thoroughly acquainted with the Republican methods. He has served in Congress, and in various public capacities and is brought out at this juncture as the only Republican in the district who has a ghost of a chance of saving it to that party. He is a good stump speaker, and organized in every respect and determined to meet every emergency. Powers is a young man of clear record, irreproachable character, and distinguished abilities. He has gone in to win, and the party must stand by him to win.

Tonight Cincinnati Times-Star remarks: "The worst men connected with the corrupt system in Kentucky are not the convicts." Some of the keepers are braves for whom hanging would be too good, but the Legislature is to blame for making such things possible as lately occurred at Lexington.

The Cincinnati Times-Star remarks:

"The worst men connected with the corrupt system in Kentucky are not the convicts."

Some of the keepers are

braves for whom hanging would be too

good, but the Legislature is to blame for

making such things possible as lately occurred at Lexington.

The Cincinnati Times-Star remarks:

"The worst men connected with the

corrupt system in Kentucky are not the

convicts."

Some of the keepers are

braves for whom hanging would be too

good, but the Legislature is to blame for

making such things possible as lately occurred at Lexington.

The Cincinnati Times-Star remarks:

"The worst men connected with the

corrupt system in Kentucky are not the

convicts."

Some of the keepers are

braves for whom hanging would be too

good, but the Legislature is to blame for

making such things possible as lately occurred at Lexington.

The Cincinnati Times-Star remarks:

"The worst men connected with the

corrupt system in Kentucky are not the

convicts."

Some of the keepers are

braves for whom hanging would be too

good, but the Legislature is to blame for

making such things possible as lately occurred at Lexington.

The Cincinnati Times-Star remarks:

"The worst men connected with the

corrupt system in Kentucky are not the

convicts."

Some of the keepers are

braves for whom hanging would be too

good, but the Legislature is to blame for

making such things possible as lately occurred at Lexington.

The Cincinnati Times-Star remarks:

"The worst men connected with the

corrupt system in Kentucky are not the

convicts."

Some of the keepers are

braves for whom hanging would be too

good, but the Legislature is to blame for

making such things possible as lately occurred at Lexington.

The Cincinnati Times-Star remarks:

"The worst men connected with the

corrupt system in Kentucky are not the

convicts."

Some of the keepers are

braves for whom hanging would be too

good, but the Legislature is to blame for

making such things possible as lately occurred at Lexington.

The Cincinnati Times-Star remarks:

"The worst men connected with the

corrupt system in Kentucky are not the

convicts."

Some of the keepers are

braves for whom hanging would be too

good, but the Legislature is to blame for

making such things possible as lately occurred at Lexington.

The Cincinnati Times-Star remarks:

"The worst men connected with the

corrupt system in Kentucky are not the

convicts."

Some of the keepers are

braves for whom hanging would be too

good, but the Legislature is to blame for

making such things possible as lately occurred at Lexington.

The Cincinnati Times-Star remarks:

"The worst men connected with the

corrupt system in Kentucky are not the

convicts."

Some of the keepers are

braves for whom hanging would be too

good, but the Legislature is to blame for

making such things possible as lately occurred at Lexington.

The Cincinnati Times-Star remarks:

"The worst men connected with the

corrupt system in Kentucky are not the

convicts."

Some of the keepers are

braves for whom hanging would be too

good, but the Legislature is to blame for

making such things possible as lately occurred at Lexington.

The Cincinnati Times-Star remarks:

"The worst men connected with the

corrupt system in Kentucky are not the

convicts."

Some of the keepers are

braves for whom hanging would be too

good, but the Legislature is to blame for

making such things possible as lately occurred at Lexington.

The Cincinnati Times-Star remarks:

"The worst men connected with the

corrupt system in Kentucky are not the

convicts."

Some of the keepers are

braves for whom hanging would be too

good, but the Legislature is to blame for

making such things possible as lately occurred at Lexington.

The Cincinnati Times-Star remarks:

"The worst men connected with the

corrupt system in Kentucky are not the

convicts."

Some of the keepers are

braves for whom hanging would be too

good, but the Legislature is to blame for

making such things possible as lately occurred at Lexington.

The Cincinnati Times-Star remarks:

"The worst men connected with the

corrupt system in Kentucky are not the

convicts."

Some of the keepers are

braves for whom hanging would be too

good, but the Legislature is to blame for

making such things possible as lately occurred at Lexington.

The Cincinnati Times-Star remarks:

"The worst men connected with the

corrupt system in Kentucky are not the

convicts."

Some of the keepers are

braves for whom hanging would be too

good, but the Legislature is to blame for

making such things possible as lately occurred at Lexington.

The Cincinnati Times-Star remarks:

"The worst men connected with the

corrupt system in Kentucky are not the

convicts."

Some of the keepers are

braves for whom hanging would be too

good, but the Legislature is to blame for

making such things possible as lately occurred at Lexington.

The Cincinnati Times-Star remarks:

"The worst men connected with the

corrupt system in Kentucky are not the

convicts."

Some of the keepers are

braves for whom hanging would be too

good, but the Legislature is to blame for

making such things possible as lately occurred at Lexington.

The Cincinnati Times-Star remarks:

"The worst men connected with the

corrupt system in Kentucky are not the

convicts."

Some of the keepers are

braves for whom hanging would be too

good, but the Legislature is to blame for

making such things possible as lately occurred at Lexington.

The Cincinnati Times-Star remarks:

"The worst men connected with the

corrupt system in Kentucky are not the

convicts."

Some of the keepers are

braves for whom hanging would be too

good, but the Legislature is to blame for

making such things possible as lately occurred at Lexington.

The Cincinnati Times-Star remarks:

"The worst men connected with the

corrupt system in Kentucky are not the

convicts."

Some of the keepers are

braves for whom hanging would be too

good, but the Legislature is to blame for

making such things possible as lately occurred at Lexington.

The Cincinnati Times-Star remarks:

"The worst men connected with the

corrupt system in Kentucky are not the

convicts."

Some of the keepers are

braves for whom hanging would be too

good, but the Legislature is to blame for

making such things possible as lately occurred at Lexington.

The Cincinnati Times-Star remarks:

"The worst men connected with the

corrupt system in Kentucky are not the

convicts."

Some of the keepers are

braves for whom hanging would be too

good, but the Legislature is to blame for

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

TUESDAY EVE., SEPT. 16, 1884.

ROSS & McCARTHY,
Publishers and Proprietors,
To WHOM ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS

SOME years ago the Democrats
Died in their nostrils, stink.
But now I do appeal to them
To help me or sink.
I want to live in safety,
To keep them one and all,
But now I ask the colored folks
To help me or fall.

AMERICA DAVIS, colored, charged with shooting chickens, was tried before Judge Coons on Monday, adjudged guilty and sent to jail for ten days.

The colored Blaine and Logan club of this city, on benten knee will be asked to forgive Mr. Wadsworth's slavery record and come over to him in his extremity. In what a pitiable position is the Sage of Sugar Loaf Hill.

At the meeting of the Blaine and Logan club in East Maysville, last night, the mere mention of Culbertson's name aroused more enthusiasm than that of any other person mentioned during the evening. Straws point how the wind blows.

A REPORT has reached Maysville that the brakeman of the freight train which left Maysville yesterday afternoon, was fatally hurt last night by falling from the train one mile North of Myers station. We have had no further particulars of the accident.

ELDER GEORGE DANIE, of Frankfort, who was to have been here last Sunday, but was called to preach the funeral of Elder George Flower, of Paducah, will preach at the Christian Church next Sunday morning and evening, and at Washington at 3:30 p.m.

The Democratic delegation at the public speaking last night consisted of Messrs. Robert F. Means, Abner Bowling, John W. Hancock and the writer. A count of noses this morning shows that none of them were converted to Republican principles as enunciated by Mr. Hutchins.

The Dudes won the championship on Saturday by defeating the Red Rangers in eleven innings the score standing sixteen to fourteen. The pitching of Wheately and the catching of Means of the Dudes and the catching of Cole of the Red Rangers, were the features of the game.

The grand Democratic barbecue announced to take place at Brittingham's grove, Adams County, Ohio, on the 25th inst, will possibly come off according to programme. Hon. E. C. Phister, Judge E. Whitaker, Hon. Frank Hurst, Hon. W. C. P. Breckinridge, Hon. J. D. Beck, General William Preston and many other distinguished Democrats are expected to be present.

The following are some of the appointments made by the M. E. Conference in session at Cuttletshire: Union Church, Covington, Bidwell Lane; Main street, Covington, Amon Boering, Grace Church, Newport, A. W. Bell; Bellvue, E. L. Saunders; Dayton, S. G. Pollard; Augusta, H. C. Northcott; Maysville, S. G. Easton; Ashland, J. R. Eades; Cuttletburg, T. Hanford; Lexington, William MacAfee; Trinity Church, Louisville, L. A. Pearce; Tollesboro, J. S. Marietta, Somerset, E. B. Hill. The other appointments have not yet been announced.

MASON COUNTY STATISTICS.

The taxable property in this county for the year 1884, as shown by the assessments returned to the Auditor's office, consists of the following items:

WHEAT, $1,491,673

Land, 1,417,476

Horse and mares, 188,272

Cattle and horses, 1,347,347

Sheep, 21,347

Hogs, 23,250

Stores, 267,925

Under equalization law, 267,925

Total, 71,194,142

This valuation having been supervised by the State Board of Equalization stands as follows:

Land, $2,472,533

Town lots, 1,417,476

Personal property, 1,347,347

Total, 71,194,142

Add tax on this amount at 50% ratio, $35,591,880

Add tax on seven dogs, 700

Total, $35,591,880

COLORED.

Land, $2,512,652

Town lots, 21,75,63

Horse and mares, 700

Cattle and horses, 180

Sheep, 35

Hogs, 105

Stores, 105

Under equalization law, 205

Watches, clocks, etc., 205

Total, $35,591,880

As equalized by State Board it stands:

Land, $2,574,376

Town lots, 24,232

Personal property, 1,349,000

Total, $35,591,880

Add tax on this amount at 50% ratio, $32,071

PERSONALS.

Mr. J. D. Kehoe, of Frankfort, is in the city.

Mr. Thomas Conner, of St. Louis, Mo., is visiting friends in this city.

Miss Mary Brown, of East Third street, is visiting friends in Cincinnati.

Mr. Thomas Nicholson will leave for Houston, Texas, this afternoon.

Dr. T. H. N. Smith and wife and Mr. Robert Wallingford left for Cincinnati this morning to attend the exposition.

Miss Laura Fewell and Miss Leachman, of Meridian, Miss., are visiting Mrs. C. M. Dodson. They have been attending the Baptist Association at Mayslick.

Mr. John Brookover, of Brown County, Ohio, who was injured by a fall a few days ago, is thought to be sinking, and no hopes are entertained of his recovery.

Mr. Michael O'Neill, of Youngstown, Ohio, who has been visiting his father at Manchester, passed through this city en route on his way home, accompanied by the Messrs. McCabe of Cincinnati.

Miss Carrie and Mamie Culbertson of Clifton, entertained quite a number of their friends last evening. The occasion was a pleasant one, indeed. Dancing and other amusements were indulged in until late hour. An elegant lunch was served on the lawn, which was beautifully illuminated with Chinese lanterns. The entertainment was a source of enjoyment to all present. Among those in attendance were Misses Mollie Dickson, Nona Burns, Nannie Burrows, Viola Eckert, Fannie Burrows, Maude Wilson, Jessie Taylor, Sophia Hutcheson and Lizzie Burrows, and Messrs. W. P. Peor, Chas. Wood, Harry McDougle, Thomas R. Plaster, Herman Wood, E. M. Hendrickson, Lee Lovel, Nat Wood, M. F. Marsh and others.

There is a

On Market-street, Where everything

Is nice and neat;

For whisky, brandy,

Bear or wine,

Cat-tail juice,

At any time,

There you will find

Always on hand,

Two clever gentlemen—

Roser & Blaud.

For the colored Blaine and Logan club of this city, the mere mention of Culbertson's name aroused more enthusiasm than that of any other person mentioned during the evening. Straws point how the wind blows.

A REPORT has reached Maysville that the brakeman of the freight train which left Maysville yesterday afternoon, was fatally hurt last night by falling from the train one mile North of Myers station. We have had no further particulars of the accident.

ELDER GEORGE DANIE, of Frankfort, who was to have been here last Sunday, but was called to preach the funeral of Elder George Flower, of Paducah, will preach at the Christian Church next Sunday morning and evening, and at Washington at 3:30 p.m.

The Democratic delegation at the public speaking last night consisted of Messrs.

Robert F. Means, Abner Bowling, John W. Hancock and the writer. A count of noses this morning shows that none of them were converted to Republican principles as enunciated by Mr. Hutchins.

The Dudes won the championship on Saturday by defeating the Red Rangers in eleven innings the score standing sixteen to fourteen. The pitching of Wheately and the catching of Means of the Dudes and the catching of Cole of the Red Rangers, were the features of the game.

The following are some of the appointments made by the M. E. Conference in session at Cuttletshire: Union Church,

Covington, Bidwell Lane; Main street,

Covington, Amon Boering, Grace Church,

Newport, A. W. Bell; Bellvue, E. L. Saunders; Dayton, S. G. Pollard; Augusta; Ashland, J. R. Eades; Cuttletburg, T. Hanford; Lexington, William

MacAfee; Trinity Church, Louisville, L.

A. Pearce; Tollesboro, J. S. Marietta;

Somerset, E. B. Hill. The other appointments have not yet been announced.

The Poor Man's Friend.

Ulric Observer.

"The iron heel of monopoly is on the neck of labor," remarked Ben as he showed the conductor his pass.

In the present library of Congress there is shelf-room for 250,000 volumes, and there January 1, 1884, on hand, 513,441 volumes of books, and 165,000 pamphlets, for which room is required.

Notice.

During my absence in the South, my insurance business will be conducted by

G. T. Poynett. He will offer indemnity in first-class companies at low rates.

John B. Poynett, Jr.

Maysville, Ky., Sept. 13th.

John B. Poynett, Jr.

Att. on this amount at 5% cent.

per $100.

Total, $30,591,880

COLLECTED.

Land, $2,512,652

Town lots, 21,75,63

Horse and mares, 700

Cattle and horses, 180

Sheep, 35

Hogs, 105

Stores, 105

Under equalization law, 205

Watches, clocks, etc., 205

Total, $30,591,880

As equalized by State Board it stands:

Land, $2,574,376

Town lots, 24,232

Personal property, 1,349,000

Total, $30,591,880

Add tax on this amount at 50% ratio, $32,071

Try Langdon's City Butter Crackers.

Call at Ranson's if you wish bargains

Men's low shoes at startling prices, at Ranson's.

Miss Eddie Berry will open a class in music on the 1st of September.

Try to her for terms.

121stif

We place on sale to-day our entire stock of low shoes and slippers at great reductions.

F. B. RANSOM.

The Hope of the Nation—Children, slow in development, puny, scrawny and delicate, use "Wells' Health Renewer."

"Rough on Pain."—Cures colic, cramps, diarrhea; externally for aches, sprains, pains, headache, neuralgia, rheumatism.

For man or beast. 25 and 50c.

Why suffer with malaria? Emory's

Standard Cure Pills are infallible, never fail to cure the most obstinate cases;

purely vegetable—25 cents. edw

Should General Sharpe be chosen to this position he will appoint a man of ability to conduct the department.

He is the head of the Treasury, and should be the head of the Department of Justice.

Washington, Sept. 16.—General Sharpe

has been appointed to the office of Secy.

of State, and will be confirmed by the Senate to-morrow.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

should be the head of the Department of

Justice.

He is the head of the Treasury, and

